

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the turmoil and unnecessary wars being waged in this world today have brought to the attention of the people of this country the necessity for an adequate navy, and

WHEREAS, the United States Navy, notwithstanding almost insurmountable obstacles, has made itself a capable and efficient first line of defense, and

WHEREAS, it is apparent, due to the changing conditions in the world today, bringing increased danger to our country, it is the duty of every citizen of our country to lend every aid and cooperation to the building up and maintenance of a navy second to none,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 27, 1940, as NAVY DAY, in keeping with established custom, to be observed by appropriate ceremonies by the people generally.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 4th day of October, 1940.
